Re: Horman and Horman
Multnomah Co. Case Nos. 1006-66084 & 1006-66086 (consolidated)

Dear Judge Meisenheimer:

I'm corresponding with the court at this time on behalf of my client, Respondent in the above-referenced matters, with the knowledge and agreement of Ms. Rackner, who represents the Petitioner in the above-referenced consolidated matters.

I have advised Ms. Rackner that my client, the Respondent, will not be contesting any matters to be heard in the scheduled hearing set for July 22, 2010 at 1:30 pm.

Accordingly, Ms. Rackner and I are agreed that there is no further need for a hearing before the court, and that the court may strike the scheduled proceeding from its calendar.

With respect to the underlying PETITION FOR DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE, it remains Respondent's intention to seek separate representation by domestic relations counsel, who will address any future scheduling regarding the dissolution case.

Yours truly,

Stephen Houze

Case No. 1006-66086

AFFIDAVIT OF COUNSEL RE:
MOTION FOR ORDER TO SHOW
CAUSE RE: REMEDIAL CONTEMPT

STATE OF OREGON)

County of Multnomah)

) ss.

I, Laura E. Rackner, do hereby swear and depose the following:

1. I am the attorney for the Petitioner in the above-captioned case. I make this affidavit in support of Petitioner's Motion and Order to Show Cause Re: Remedial Contempt.
2. Petitioner submitted a Petition for Restraining Order to Prevent Abuse (Family Abuse Prevention Act) on June 28, 2010 (hereafter "the Petition"). The Restraining Order to Prevent Abuse was granted by the Honorable Keith Meisenheimer on June 28, 2010. Also on June 28, Petitioner submitted a motion for an order to restrict access to the file. Among the reasons Petitioner sought to restrict access to the file were concerns about the investigation into the disappearance of his son, Kyron, and concerns about Petitioner's personal safety and the safety of his children.

1 3. The Honorable Keith Meisenheimer signed the Order to Restrict Access to File on
2 June 28, 2010. Pursuant to this Order, the only persons or entities allowed access to the Court
3 file are as follows: 1) Oregon Courts and Court Staff; 2) Any governmental agency; 3) The 4 parties (Kaine Andrew Horman and Terri Moulton Horman); 4) The attorney of record for 5 Respondent; and 5) The law firm of Gearing, Rackner & Engel, LLP or the attorney of record
6 for Petitioner.

7 4. On June 29, 2010, the Honorable Keith Meisenheimer signed the Order Vacating
8 Order to Seal File as to OJIN, Ex-Parte Motion and Order to Restrict Access to File and 9 Order. Otherwise, the June 28 Order to Restrict Access to File remained in full force and 10 effect. On July 8, 2010, the Honorable Keith Meisenheimer signed the Order Amending
11 Prior Order to Restrict Access to File. This Order provides that the June 28 Order restricting 12 access to the file was vacated, except that access to the information relating to the address of 13 Petitioner and the parties' minor child would remain restricted.

14 5. As set forth in more detail below, Petitioner has learned that Respondent gave an 15 unauthorized party(ies) access to the documents and/or information in the court file.
16 Petitioner is unaware of the extent of who else is aware of the contents of the court file.

17 6. Due to the ongoing investigation pertaining to the disappearance of Petitioner's son
18 Kyron, Respondent's attempt to hire someone to murder Petitioner, and the media and public
19 interest in this high profile matter, Petitioner believes that it is important for access to this
20 information to remain restricted in order to protect the safety and privacy of the minor
21 children and Petitioner. Respondent's dissemination of this information to an unauthorized
22 party(ies) is detrimental to Petitioner and the children's safety, and could affect the interests
23 and safety of other family members.

1 7. Petitioner has received documents and other information from law enforcement that
2 are relevant to the issues presented in, and surrounding, the restraining order. Petitioner
3 believes that this material demonstrates a willful violation of this Court's order to restrict
4 access to sensitive portions of the court file.

5 8. Petitioner's attorney is aware that the Family Abuse Prevention Act Restraining Order
6 signed by this Court was served on Respondent on Monday, June 28, 2010. Petitioner is 7 further aware that, pursuant to his request, this Court ordered that the documents have
8 restricted access from view by anyone except Respondent and her attorney.

9 9. Petitioner has learned from law enforcement that this Court's order that the material be 10 sealed from review by anyone other than Respondent and her attorney has been violated.

11 In the course of its investigation, law enforcement informed Petitioner's attorney that they
12 became aware of an individual by the name of Michael Cook. Petitioner is aware of Mr.
13 Cook because he went to high school with him. Petitioner believes that Respondent did not 14 know Mr. Cook until after his son Kyron's disappearance on June 4, 2010.

15 10. Law enforcement informed Petitioner that since June 4, 2010, Respondent and Mr.
16 Cook have had multiple contacts via phone calls, text messages and personal contacts.
17 Petitioner's attorney has also reviewed Mr. Cook's work cell phone records. In addition,
18 Petitioner is aware that Mr. Cook has been recently interviewed by law enforcement.

19 11. Petitioner is aware that pursuant to a search of Mr. Cook's cell phone, a number of 20 pages of Petitioner's restraining order were photographed by Mr. Cook's cell phone.
21 Petitioner is aware that Mr. Cook was interviewed and stated that he went to Respondent's
22 home on Monday, June 28, 2010, and that he arrived after Respondent had been served with 23 the Restraining Order. Mr. Cook told investigators that Respondent made the Restraining

1 Order available to Mr. Cook for review and, in fact, pointed out particular sections that were
2 noteworthy to Respondent. Mr. Cook also told investigators that he provided information
3 regarding the documents that he had seen to at least two other individuals. Further,
4 Respondent allowed Mr. Cook to take cell phone camera photographs of the sealed restraining
5 order. Of particular concern to Petitioner was the fact that a cell phone camera photograph
6 was taken of Petitioner's listed residence address. In fact, the search of Mr. Cook's cell phone
7 also revealed that a Google Maps search of the address was later performed by Mr. Cook.
8 Mr. Cook told law enforcement when interviewed that he got the address from the paperwork,
9 that he did an internet maps search for the address but never went to Petitioner's listed
10 residence.

11 12. Further, Petitioner has learned that Mr. Cook and Respondent appear to now be 12 involved in a relationship to include sexual activity. While Petitioner cannot state when the 13 relationship and sexual activity actually began, according to the information obtained, it
14 appears the sexual nature of the relationship began on or about June 30, 2010, four days after 15 Petitioner left the family home, and two days after the Court granted sole custody of 16 Petitioner and Respondent's child, Kiara, to Petitioner.

17 13. Law enforcement has informed Petitioner that the materials supporting this 18 relationship that have been obtained and clarified by interviews with Mr. Cook include
19 hundreds of text messages as well as several photographs of Respondent in various stages of 20 undress and graphic sexual activity. In a word, law enforcement has made Petitioner aware 21 that Mr. Cook and Respondent were "sexting" on and after June 30, 2010. While Respondent,
22 at times, references the fact that she misses both children, Kiara and Kyron, the significant
23 majority of the material deals with social and personal matters between Mr. Cook and

Respondent and belies that assertion. Respondent asked Mr. Cook to lie to her own attorney and others about the fact that she had gone to Mr. Cook's home.

14. Law enforcement has informed Petitioner's attorney that Respondent's stated personal relationship concerns and sexual overtures to Mr. Cook resemble those made to the man Respondent previously attempted to hire to murder Petitioner.

15. Petitioner retains the actual cell phone related documents provided by law enforcement and asks that they be examined by the Court in camera.

16. Further, law enforcement has informed Petitioner's attorney that an identified clerk at a known local gym reported that on or about June 28, 2010, and prior to the service of the legal documents, Respondent came to that location looking to "abduct" her daughter, Kiara, from the gym daycare center while Petitioner worked out at the gym. Respondent asked the clerk to contact her if Petitioner came to the gym with Kiara. Law enforcement has informed Petitioner's attorney that the clerk informed the manager, and he then informed law enforcement of the request by Respondent.

17. Petitioner is seeking the relief set forth in the accompanying motion.

1 18. Petitioner is incurring attorney fees to enforce an existing Order of the Court which
2 was designed to promote the safety and privacy of the minor children and the Petitioner.
3 Petitioner further requests that as a remedial contempt sanction, Respondent be required to 4 pay his attorney fees and costs incurred herein.
